Topic: Revenue Boss on well deserved leave

Commissioner-General of the Guyana Revenue Authority, Mr. Khurshid Sattaur is advising the public not to jump to any conclusion that he was sent on leave for a particular reason. He is urging persons to desist from speculating.

Mr. Sattaur stated that as a public officer he is entitled to his leave which he took at this time, and in his absence the Deputy Commissioner-General Mr. Clement Sealey is acting until his return to work.

Mr. Sealey is assisted by very competent officers who are carrying out their functions in a professional manner.
